UST Corporate Internet Access Policy

Employees may not spend work time engaging in personal use of the Internet, or otherwise allow personal use of the Internet to interfere with their own or any fellow employee's job performance, with the exception of participation in social media activities as outlined in the UST Global social media policy. Employees may not use the Internet or the UST Global network for personal use that in any way decreases productivity.

When using the Internet, employees should avoid:

- Using the company network for commercial purposes that are not work related or use it in any way that may offend other employees or otherwise violate company policy, the UST Global code of conduct, or the law.
- Excessive or inappropriate personal use of the network will result in disciplinary action, up to, and including, termination of employment.
- Using Internet access to send or receive business communications, or visit Web sites containing offensive content.
- Offensive content includes, but is not limited to, pornography, sexual comments or images, racial slurs, hate propaganda, or any content that could reasonably offend someone on the basis of their age, sex, race, sexual orientation, religious or political beliefs, national origin, or disability.
- Using the Internet to defraud, harass or defame others, to infringe copyrights or other intellectual property rights, to violate any company policy, or to violate any applicable law, ordinance or regulation.
